

Semi-Weekly Interior Journal.

VOL. XVI.

STANFORD, KY., TUESDAY, APRIL 5, 1887.

NO. 217.

Semi-Weekly Interior Journal

Published Tuesdays and Fridays
AT 52 PER ANNUM, CASH.

understood if we credit that $2.50 will be expected and demanded.

W. P. WALTON.

WINDS AND CURRENTS OF THE ARCTIC BASIN

(To the Editor of the Interior Journal.)

The tyrannical yoke of Harold caused a number of Norwegians under Navador to sail in 860 A. D., who discovered Iceland, upon which island they established an independent republic. Thus commenced the long series of Arctic expeditions numbering more than 250 down to the tragic end of the Greeley affair. And with each expedition the field of human knowledge has been widened and great commercial enterprises established, and they will be repeated while the thirst for knowledge is persistent in seeking to know the laws that control the conditions which sustain and surround life in this planet, especially the solution of scientific phenomena revealed at or about the pole and acting with mysterious forces to disturb the atmosphere and the seas, create or modify storms and influence climates. The results of all that have gone before tend to show that the Pole is surrounded by a barrier, only indented in one or two places very slightly, circular in shape, of about 1,200 miles in diameter and containing an area of 2,500,000 square miles of unexplored region and with three great tidal waves entering the basin by three distinct channels—Bering Strait, Davis Strait and North of Greenland—all of them meeting somewhere in the neighborhood of the Parry Islands, producing there still water and piled up ice near the greatest part of land, causing in that region the pole of greatest cold and towards which the prevailing winds blow, a fact well established by many and actual observations in direct opposition to the supposed laws of meteorology which are found from observations taken in milder localities, the areas of successive refrigeration on the earth's surface become areas of high barometric pressure from the centre of which the wind blows outward and not towards. Yet from observations taken in and about the region of this pole and a few about the second pole of greatest cold in the Northern hemisphere, located in northeast Siberia, the fact has been established that cold blasts come from the neighborhood of these two regions in full, bottled up, as it were, by the prevailing winds, from which fact there must be a point somewhere below zero where the barometric influence acts adversely to the laws above that point in the same manner as a change in the temperature of water above and below four degrees. From observations so far the prevailing winds in Kennedy Channel, which are from the northeast, caused by the easterly wind from the northeast of Spitsbergen passing over the warm gulf stream to the northwest of that region, become warmer and on over the sea to the west; pass over the north of Greenland to Kennedy Channel and Smith's Sound, drawn down to the region of the pole of greatest cold, thus raising the temperature in the highest latitude of Greenland, found to be the case by Dr. Biessell, who in his observations discovered the climate on the east side of Hall's basin to be much milder than it was to the southward, also the lowest temperature experienced by Nares in his winter quarters in the "Alert," off Cape Union, was during a gale of wind from the southwest with the greatest rise from the north and northwest; the heaviest snowstorms occurring with the winds of the east and northeast which have been found in every expedition in that region to be the prevailing winds.

Again to the north of Melville Islands and North Cornwall, it was found by Commander Richards the prevailing winds were from the north and northwest, blowing towards the area of the greatest cold and was much warmer than the winds from the south and southeast, coming as they do from the region of the north passes over the warm body of water in the northeast branch of the Behring polar current, continuing on toward the pole of greatest cold. Similar observations have been taken in the north of Siberia. The current around the north of Greenland is met by a branch current from around the hammock barrier, to the north of Grinnell Land, deflected it down the hollowed-out coast of northwest Greenland and augmenting it in force, produces a strong southerly current through Robison Channel. This current in Dr. Biessell's observations on entering Smith's Sound was found to be one and a half to five miles per hour; traveling on it meets the tide from Baffin's Bay about Cape Fraser or Sabin; a portion shafted off from the southwest trend of the east coast of Lincoln sea, passes through openings north, meets the tide in Wellington channel, as the flood in Baffin Strait is from the east, with a rise of two feet, as is also the case in Jones Strait. In that portion of the Arctic basin to the north of Spitsbergen and Franz Joseph Land the direction of the current is to the southward and southeast, with the constant drift of ice in that direction, as Parry found in his expedition, to carry him by night as much as he made by day in his sledge. This bodily drift being influenced by the prevailing winds and resistance of the gulf stream, is by the time it reaches the east coast of Greenland of great force sweeping down the east coast of Greenland with great rapidity around Cape Farewell, carrying with it the great ice floes and glacial berge of the east of Greenland so often encountered by vessels to and from Europe and America. This broad opening and great drift in a southerly direction from the immense outlet to the Arctic basin. The gulf stream coming to the north is divided, the main portion turning to the south and east runs down over the British Isles, an arm taking a northeasterly direction runs around to the north, skirting the coast of northern Europe and Asia, a large portion passing to the north comes in contact with the southern pack, but having a greater specific gravity sinks and passes as an under and counter current to the Arctic basin, where its motion is checked. Water being a non-conductor of heat does not diffuse its warmth whilst in motion, but on being checked at the pole, heat is given off and expanded raises the specific gravity when the current comes to the surface and joins in the southern run, a small portion going around the north of Greenland, form the north Greenland current settling down Lincoln sea and Robison Channel. In Behring Strait the flood tide comes from the Pacific and rises two feet, and by the time it comes to Point Barrow it rises seven inches. This tidal wave must be and is augmented by a branch of the China gulf stream, which running past the Alutian Islands, through Behring set diffuses itself in the Arctic basin in three branches, the lesser of which runs to the north and west around the south end of Wrangle Island, the middle branch takes a northerly course over Herald Island, when by some obstruction it is deflected to the northwest around Wrangle Island and is of great force, carrying with it the break up everything before it. The third and main branch sits to the north and east around Point Barrow producing a great drift, part of which passes through the numerous straits of the Northern Archipelago, while the main body runs to the north of the hummock barrier, till it meets that of north Greenland, carrying with it the great fogs of the northeast Arctic basin, assisted by the prevailing winds, piles the ice up, thus causing that great barrier to the north, the main body of pack or drift ice passes over the pole and joins in the southern drift between Spitsbergen and Greenland. The evidences of such current is shown by the observations of Admiral Bielcher in the disturbed state of the ice in the neighborhood of North Cornwall, acted upon by a strong tidal wave flowing in an east and west direction and from the decreased dimensions of the free ice to the north of Melville and North Cornwall, the drift comes from the Polar seas and has no connection with Baffin's Bay through either Jones or Lancaster Sounds, and in the western part of Jones Sound, where the current is unobstructed it runs with great velocity, rippling up the ice. And as the tide or current is strongly influenced by the northwest winds, the possibility is there is an open body of water along the axis of this current.

From the great resistance, the separation and peculiar directions of all these currents, so far as known, the inference is there is a strong obstruction in the immediate vicinity of the Pole and of great size, which is either a large cluster of condensed islands or one great island surrounded by open bodies of water at certain seasons of the year and not one general body of open water, as supposed by many, or an immense hole, as stated by Symmes, and from the analysis of the drift and the fact of fogs of the North being seen to emigrate in the spring to this unknown region and return in the fall with their young, establishes beyond doubt that this land is of a mild climate, sufficiently so to support vegetation, made so mainly by the check to the gulf stream, when heat is given off, as in the case of Great Britain under similar influences.

LUCIEN YOUNG.

STRANGER THAN FICTION.—It is said that "one-half the world does not know how the other half lives." Two cases are lately reported which show that strange things happen in this world. In the divorce case of Sinsu vs. Sinsu, now on trial in Cincinnati, it was developed that Mrs. Charles J. Sinsu, wife of a rich jeweler, lived in the same city, the mistress of two homes at the same time. She kept house on Walnut Hills for her husband as Mrs. Mrs. Sinsu. At Avondale, three miles away, she was known as Mrs. Gibson. She spent her nights on Walnut Hills with her husband, and her days at Avondale with her lover. Once she pretended to go to Norfolk to see relatives, and was gone several months, but she had been at Avondale. She finally deserted her husband and sued for a divorce, when the facts were brought out.

Ex-Senator Henry G. Davis, of West Virginia, now worth $20,000,000, and who will yet be the richest man in the country, was a bankrupt in the Baltimore & Ohio railroad just before the war broke out.

Three persons concerned in the attempt on the Czar's life have been hanged and a large number of officers arrested.

"BILLY, THE BULLDOZER."

Some Words With the Bark on Them.

[To the Editor of the Interior Journal.]
Some one writing to the Courier Journal under date of March 31st from this place gave what purported to be the facts in the controversy between the Hon. W. O. Bradley and myself. The writer was evidently ignorant of the facts, or had been misinformed. I never wrote Mr. Bradley a covert threatening letter. I merely asked him to retract what he had said, as his attack upon me was entirely unwarranted. I never intimated any violence towards him in my letter asking a retraction. Our relations before that time had been of the most friendly character, and I was completely dazed when he opened out upon me such a tirade of abuse. I certainly would have stopped him in his remarks had I not remembered the close relations existing between him and the Court, feeling certain that if I opened my mouth I would most certainly have landed in jail. I bore it all quietly, trusting that Col. Bradley's honor would have prompted him to rectify a wrong that a thorough gentleman would have esteemed a privilege. But in this I was mistaken.

Now to the facts: I was summoned by the defense to testify, which side was represented by Col. Bradley. For some cause unknown to me I was introduced by the prosecution. The defense propounded questions to me which I answered reluctantly. In his argument to the jury Col. Bradley took occasion to refer to some of my statements, and in quoting them took the liberty not only to misstate my answers to his questions, but to hold me up to ridicule before the jury and the large audience drawn thither by a desire to hear his burning eloquence, but instead were treated to a mass of dirt and filth heaped upon one who had never done the valiant colonel any injury, but on the contrary had always defended the vulnerable character of the doughty individual when assailed by his political enemies. After waiting for three days for Col. Bradley to reflect, I wrote him as gently as I could a letter as the indignant state of my mind would allow, asking him in courteous words to do me the justice and himself the credit of a public retraction. At the solicitation of friends I made overtures to him for a withdrawal of his offensive words. I wrote three letters to him for the inspection of my friends, they to decide whether I had sufficiently humbled myself to again merit the esteem and friendship of our next governor (?). But to my astonishment when the last letter was returned to me it was dropped out that Col. Bradley had been passing upon their merit, and as often as sent were returned to me for correction. I tore up the last letter and declined to have anything further to say in the matter, and most certainly would have proceeded to carry my threat into execution by cow-hiding him on sight, had not my friends tied my hands by flocking to the Court-House and signing my bond to keep the peace.

And now Mr. Editor, allow me to thank my neighbors and friends for their unsolicited acts of kindness toward one who is content to move in his humble sphere, endeavoring to rectify some errors of his past life, the disastrous effects of which errors were felt only by the writer and his immediate family. But whatever my past life may have been, even now when I have the most conclusive evidence of the esteem of my neighbors and friends, I can say truthfully that I have never tried to impose myself upon an unsuspecting public as worthy of consideration. And although Col. Brad-ley, as I am told, was informed that it was an easy thing to cuff my ears, and no resistance would be made, with the bolstering support of a half dozen belligerent friends, I have summoned sufficient spirit to proclaim Col. W. O. Bradley a craven-hearted coward and poltroon. Respectively,

"S. S. MYERS."

Both the ocean cable lines of the Bennett Mackay Cable Company are broken.

At Pola, Austria, the ground under the amphitheater sank and the building went into view. Vapors ascend from the immense chasm opened.

A destructive fire is raging in the cedar brakes on the Brazos river, in Texas. Twenty thousand acres of timber have already been destroyed.

Peter Stellenbarger, of Hartville, Ohio killed a fat cow and found in her stomach a butcher knife seven inches long, with a keen edge and a sharp point. It had lacerated the coating of the stomach a little, but the cow had seemed none the worse for it. The knife had been missing since last September, when it was probably fed to the cow with potato peelings.

According to the statements of a Chicago leather dealer, the finest quality of so called Russian leather is now successfully imitated by a firm of Philadelphia marocco tanners, who, after years of experiment have succeeded in imparting the peculiar odor of the genuine article to their product. The buckskin leather is made from kid and sheepskins.

"Boy, is that dog dangerous?" he asked, a ten year-old boy who had a puppy in his arms. "I dunno sir, as I only bought him a half hour ago, but I can tell you I am a dangerous character myself when I get awf mad."

LONDON, LAUREL COUNTY.

The Clay Circuit Court will convene at Manchester next Monday, the 11th.

Five members of the family of J. H. Johnson, living just outside of town, are sick.

It is reported that moonshine whisky has almost played out in the mountains on account of the scarcity of corn.

Mr. and Mrs. Griffin, of Rushville, Indiana, parents of Mrs. John McGee and O. H. Griffin, of this place, have been visiting here.

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Hager, of Manchester, were here. Mrs. Hager was Miss Bessie White, the lady who downed the Kentucky Board of Pharmacy before the Court of Appeals, and sister to the redoubtable Johnny De.

It is strange, but nevertheless true that the republicans of this county have as yet taken no steps to advance the interests of the INTERIOR JOURNAL's candidate for Governor, i. e.: (that is to say) the gallant Col. O'Bradley.

There will be court of some kind here nearly every day this week as there was last.

Henry Chandler, charged with assaulting a Jew peddler named Goldberg, had his examining trial before Judge Boreman and was held in a bond of $300.

Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Ward and Master Richard Earle, of Paint Lick, who have been spending several days here with Mrs. Ward's parents, will return home Wednesday. E. H. Hackney has been in the cities replenishing his stock of general merchandise. O. H. Griffin is home from Jefferville, Indiana. D. H. Williams, of Barboursville, has been down to see relatives. Daniel speaks of taking unto himself a helpmate shortly. Charley Catching is sick with pneumonia. Mrs. Mary J. Long, of Shelby county, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Jones, at this place. Little Lillian Jackson is very sick.

An old Swiss man, named Frantwein, had one of his countrymen, named Weidmar, arraigned before the County Judge last week on a charge of a breach of the peace, by coming to his house on the Sunday previous and disturbing him and his family. Weidmar procured a cross warrant against Frantwein for drawing a gun on him in his (Frantwein's) house. Weidmar was fined $250 and Frantwein discharged. The attorney for Weidmar made an appeal to the Court to reduce the fine, whereupon the Court proposed that if the lawyer would donate his fee, the court would do so, which, after some hesitation, was done, the lawyer no doubt feeling that his punishment was greater than that of his client.

Capt. John Tom Hazelrigg is one of us and, all things being equal, will get the undivided mountain vote in his race for Lieutenant Governor; but I fear all things are not equal. It looks to a man up a tree very much like Mr. Hazelrigg was ready to form, or has entered into a coalition, with his quondam brother in arms, that martial spirit, the gallant Simon (pure) Bolivar Buckner; as it is a noticeable fact that the fiercest Buckner organs are likewise the hottest Hazelrigg champions. This, of course, may be purely incidental and I hope it is for listen, Capt. Tom, so long as you attend strictly to your own race, the mountains, which you know to be no mean factor in this contest, are yours, but the moment it is manifested that you are playing tail to the Buckner kite your chances are deadier than a whole kit of mackerel. Harris and Hazelrigg sound well, and the former must not be sacrificed to subserve the interests of the latter.

—Capt. John Tom Hazelrigg is one of us and, all things being equal, will get the undivided mountain vote in his race for Lieutenant Governor; but I fear all things are not equal. It looks to a man up a tree very much like Mr. Hazelrigg was ready to form, or has entered into a coalition, with his quondam brother in arms, that martial spirit, the gallant Simon (pure) Bolivar Buckner; as it is a noticeable fact that the fiercest Buckner organs are likewise the hottest Hazelrigg champions. This, of course, may be purely incidental and I hope it is for listen, Capt. Tom, so long as you attend strictly to your own race, the mountains, which you know to be no mean factor in this contest, are yours, but the moment it is manifested that you are playing tail to the Buckner kite your chances are deadier than a whole kit of mackerel. Harris and Hazelrigg sound well, and the former must not be sacrificed to subserve the interests of the latter.

—Capt. John Tom Hazelrigg is one of us and, all things being equal, will get the undivided mountain vote in his race for Lieutenant Governor; but I fear all things are not equal. It looks to a man up a tree very much like Mr. Hazelrigg was ready to form, or has entered into a coalition, with his quondam brother in arms, that martial spirit, the gallant Simon (pure) Bolivar Buckner; as it is a noticeable fact that the fiercest Buckner organs are likewise the hottest Hazelrigg champions. This, of course, may be purely incidental and I hope it is for listen, Capt. Tom, so long as you attend strictly to your own race, the mountains, which you know to be no mean factor in this contest, are yours, but the moment it is manifested that you are playing tail to the Buckner kite your chances are deadier than a whole kit of mackerel. Harris and Hazelrigg sound well, and the former must not be sacrificed to subserve the interests of the latter.

—Capt. John Tom Hazelrigg is one of us and, all things being equal, will get the undivided mountain vote in his race for Lieutenant Governor; but I fear all things are not equal. It looks to a man up a tree very much like Mr. Hazelrigg was ready to form, or has entered into a coalition, with his quondam brother in arms, that martial spirit, the gallant Simon (pure) Bolivar Buckner; as it is a noticeable fact that the fiercest Buckner organs are likewise the hottest Hazelrigg champions. This, of course, may be purely incidental and I hope it is for listen, Capt. Tom, so long as you attend strictly to your own race, the mountains, which you know to be no mean factor in this contest, are yours, but the moment it is manifested that you are playing tail to the Buckner kite your chances are deadier than a whole kit of mackerel. Harris and Hazelrigg sound well, and the former must not be sacrificed to subserve the interests of the latter.

—Capt. John Tom Hazelrigg is one of us and, all things being equal, will get the undivided mountain vote in his race for Lieutenant Governor; but I fear all things are not equal. It looks to a man up a tree very much like Mr. Hazelrigg was ready to form, or has entered into a coalition, with his quondam brother in arms, that martial spirit, the gallant Simon (pure) Bolivar Buckner; as it is a noticeable fact that the fiercest Buckner organs are likewise the hottest Hazelrigg champions. This, of course, may be purely incidental and I hope it is for listen, Capt. Tom, so long as you attend strictly to your own race, the mountains, which you know to be no mean factor in this contest, are yours, but the moment it is manifested that you are playing tail to the Buckner kite your chances are deadier than a whole kit of mackerel. Harris and Hazelrigg sound well, and the former must not be sacrificed to subserve the interests of the latter.

—Capt. John Tom Hazelrigg is one of us and, all things being equal, will get the undivided mountain vote in his race for Lieutenant Governor; but I fear all things are not equal. It looks to a man up a tree very much like Mr. Hazelrigg was ready to form, or has entered into a coalition, with his quondam brother in arms, that martial spirit, the gallant Simon (pure) Bolivar Buckner; as it is a noticeable fact that the fiercest Buckner organs are likewise the hottest Hazelrigg champions. This, of course, may be purely incidental and I hope it is for listen, Capt. Tom, so long as you attend strictly to your own race, the mountains, which you know to be no mean factor in this contest, are yours, but the moment it is manifested that you are playing tail to the Buckner kite your chances are deadier than a whole kit of mackerel. Harris and Hazelrigg sound well, and the former must not be sacrificed to subserve the interests of the latter.

—Capt. John Tom Hazelrigg is one of us and, all things being equal, will get the undivided mountain vote in his race for Lieutenant Governor; but I fear all things are not equal. It looks to a man up a tree very much like Mr. Hazelrigg was ready to form, or has entered into a coalition, with his quondam brother in arms, that martial spirit, the gallant Simon (pure) Bolivar Buckner; as it is a noticeable fact that the fiercest Buckner organs are likewise the hottest Hazelrigg champions. This, of course, may be purely incidental and I hope it is for listen, Capt. Tom, so long as you attend strictly to your own race, the mountains, which you know to be no mean factor in this contest, are yours, but the moment it is manifested that you are playing tail to the Buckner kite your chances are deadier than a whole kit of mackerel. Harris and Hazelrigg sound well, and the former must not be sacrificed to subserve the interests of the latter.

—Capt. John Tom Hazelrigg is one of us and, all things being equal, will get the undivided mountain vote in his race for Lieutenant Governor; but I fear all things are not equal. It looks to a man up a tree very much like Mr. Hazelrigg was ready to form, or has entered into a coalition, with his quondam brother in arms, that martial spirit, the gallant Simon (pure) Bolivar Buckner; as it is a noticeable fact that the fiercest Buckner organs are likewise the hottest Hazelrigg champions. This, of course, may be purely incidental and I hope it is for listen, Capt. Tom, so long as you attend strictly to your own race, the mountains, which you know to be no mean factor in this contest, are yours, but the moment it is manifested that you are playing tail to the Buckner kite your chances are deadier than a whole kit of mackerel. Harris and Hazelrigg sound well, and the former must not be sacrificed to subserve the interests of the latter.

—Capt. John Tom Hazelrigg is one of us and, all things being equal, will get the undivided mountain vote in his race for Lieutenant Governor; but I fear all things are not equal. It looks to a man up a tree very much like Mr. Hazelrigg was ready to form, or has entered into a coalition, with his quondam brother in arms, that martial spirit, the gallant Simon (pure) Bolivar Buckner; as it is a noticeable fact that the fiercest Buckner organs are likewise the hottest Hazelrigg champions. This, of course, may be purely incidental and I hope it is for listen, Capt. Tom, so long as you attend strictly to your own race, the mountains, which you know to be no mean factor in this contest, are yours, but the moment it is manifested that you are playing tail to the Buckner kite your chances are deadier than a whole kit of mackerel. Harris and Hazelrigg sound well, and the former must not be sacrificed to subserve the interests of the latter.

—Capt. John Tom Hazelrigg is one

Semi-Weekly Interior Journal

Stanford, Ky., April 5 1887

W. P. WALTON.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For the Legislature,

DR. J. D. PETTUS,

Of Crab Orchard.

THREE years ago Cornelison in order to degrade and disgrace a judge of one of our highest courts and believing that he could do so with impunity, cowhided Judge Reid, who laboring under the mortification of the act took his own life, when he should have taken that of his assailant. After a long delay, Cornelison was finally tried and sentenced to pay a fine of one cent and the costs and to undergo an imprisonment in the county jail of Montgomery for three years. The case was appealed to a specially appointed superior court, which reversed the decision. It was then taken to the Court of Appeals by the Commonwealth, and in December last the judgment of the lower court was affirmed, whereupon Cornelison filed a petition for a rehearing. This rehearing has at last been overruled by the same court and now after staying off his punishment far too inadequate for his diabolical deed, Cornelison having gotten to the end of his rope, must go to jail or fly, though a rope around his neck and his body dangling in mid air would better fit the deserts of his case.

CONTROVERSY DURHAM continues to hold his eagle eye upon all accounts against the government and you can bet your last nickel not a dollar will escape from the treasury with his say so in payment of a fraudulent claim. Judge Hammond, who was assigned to hold a special term of the U. S. Court in the southern district of Ohio sent in an account in which the words "et cetera" occurred. That was too indefinite for the controller and he demanded a revised account, when it was found that it stood "for drinks, shine, shaves and newspapers." It is hardly necessary to add that the claim was not nor will not be paid. The government cannot undertake to keep a judge shaved nor is it absolutely necessary that it keep his boots blacked, and as for his whisky the controller will see him entirely dried up inside before he will permit a cent of the nation's money to go toward slaking his thirst. Right you are, Judge, and we prohibitionists intend to stand by you till the last armed foe expires on the latter proposition.

The president has called for a list of the presidential postoffices from which the racials have not been turned out, with a view, it is said, of making the last son-of-a-gun of them walk the plank. This is good news indeed, though there is but little reason to complain of the president in the matter. There are 2,340 offices of which he has the appointment of postmaster, and since his accession to the presidency he has changed all but 200 of them. Again we say, don't you give Cleveland out. He may not be as rapid as some of the spoils lovers would wish, but he's just as sure to get there as rolling off a log. There is no better democrat in this country than Grover Cleveland and no better man in every respect anywhere upon this terrestrial sphere.

In his speech sentencing the wife murderer, Kaelin, to the penitentiary for life, Saturday, Judge Jackson expressed the sentiment of every man, who wishes to see a stop put to the carnival of bloodshed that has ever and is still disgracing the State, when he said, "I am one of those who think that death is the only proper punishment for murder." Continuing he said: "In passing this sentence I am not giving you your deserts. Instead of this, I ought to be pronouncing the judgment of death. As it is, expect no pardon. It is your fate, a fate too good for you, to pass the remaining years of your miserable life within the hard walls of a prison, without the expectation of freedom until death shall bring it to you." Kentucky needs more Judge Jacksons to inculcate the doctrine of a life for a life, instead of so framing their instruction as to befriend a jury into hanging if an ab-salute acquittal is out of the question.

The Midway Clipper got off the best April fool that we have noticed. It said that the L. & N., in view of the fact that it had made much money out of the people along the line and the further fact that the Interstate Commerce bill was soon to go into effect, had determined to give everybody who wished it a last free ride and had fixed Friday last as the day for the grand excursion without money and without price. Hundreds of unsuspecting people gathered at the depot to take the first train that came along, and when it finally dawned on their minds that it was April 1, they could hardly be restrained from giving Gadsen & Williams, the editors, a last free ride on a rail.

The new liquor law adopted in Maine to go into effect on the 18th, is the most stringent ever enacted. Under it the sale even of a glass of cider is made punishable by fine and 60 days imprisonment, while the vending of more intoxicating drinks is made almost a capital offense. That's right we believe in going the whole hog or none. The traffic in the damnation stuff must be made odious.

It is all a mistake about Gen. Wolford going into the newspaper business. The Spectator, of his town, has been bought by J. K. A. Strange and as no one signed the salutatory, outsiders jumped at the conclusion that the general had turned editor.

DR. J. D. PETTUS, who was nominated by the democrats yesterday for the legislature, is a thoroughly capable and qualified man, a democrat of the truest blood and a gentleman whom the people will unite upon with enthusiasm when they know his true worth. He makes no pretensions to oratory, but he can say to an audience what he wishes to say and in good terms at that. A strictly temperate man, he has always advocated temperance and we learn that he was the first man to bring charges under the prohibition law against an offender at Crab Orchard. He is very highly thought of at home and said in his speech that if he did not carry his precinct by 100 majority he would hardly accept the office if elected. A good man, a true man, with no suspicions of mugwumpery, but a plain, everyday democrat, we believe that the party will unite upon him and elect him by a triumphant majority.

NOTES OF CURRENT EVENTS.

The national debt less cash in treasury April 1 was $1,318,223,558.

Mayor Claude M. Johnson, of Lexington, has ambitions to be lieutenant governor.

Fire at Clarksville, Tennessee, Sunday, destroyed 25 buildings. Loss estimated at $230,000.

One thousand pensions were issued Thursday; the largest number ever issued in one day.

It is stated in Washington that the President will call an extra session of Congress Oct. 1.

The postoffice at Carrollton has been taken from the 4th class and made a Presidential office.

Senator Brown, of Georgia, says there are 5,000 men in that State who ride on railway passes.

The new third assistant postmaster general, Henry Harris, of Georgia, has assumed his duties.

A young Jane Scott shot and killed herself at Flat Rock, Ind., because her cousin wouldn't marry her.

John Tunney, of Chicago made 100 horseshoes in one hour, 12 minutes and 15 seconds, beating the record.

Col. Bob Ingersoll was admitted to practice at the New York Bar Friday. He declined to be sworn and affirmed instead.

The Illinois House has passed a bill making it unlawful to hunt or kill prairie chickens, quail or pheasants for a term of five years.

A curly grained walnut log, which was sold for $900, passed through Ashland, Boyd county, a few days since, en route to Louisville.

Dr. Brull, at Avoca, Wis., poisoned his wife to get the $10,000 insurance on her life, but the prospects are that he will be hanged instead.

It is officially announced that Mr. William Alfred Kellond has been appointed Assistant to the General Manager of the Louisville and Nashville railroad.

A collision occurred on the Michigan Central railroad Saturday, near Springfield, resulting in the death of two brakemen and the total wreck of 26 cars and two engines.

The fact that cholera has made its appearance at Panama, and that quarantine has been instituted against it at El Paso, Texas, will cause some uneasiness throughout the country.

In a fight near Hemphill, Sabine county, Texas, between Captain Scott and his State rangers and Willis Conner and his sons, three of the Conners and one of the rangers were killed.

W. M. Clements has been appointed manager of all the lines of the Baltimore & Ohio east of the Ohio river and Capt. W. Peabody, late of the Ohio & Mississippi, manager of all west of that river.

Another accident from the careless handling of firearms resulted in Lexington. One of her "most respected citizens" playfully pointed a revolver rifle at his servant girl and sent a ball crashing through her brain.

The President has commissioned Fairchild, of New York, to succeed Manning, of New York, as Secretary of the Treasury, and Maynard, of New York, to succeed Fairchild, of New York, as Assistant Secretary of the Treasury.

Mrs. Angus Cameron, wife of ex-United States Senator Cameron, attempted to drown herself in the river at Lacrosse, Wisconsin. Mrs. Cameron has been a sufferer for some years, and her afflictions have unseated her reason.

Two freight trains collided at Corinth, Miss., Friday, killing engineer Kahl and fireman Christelburg, and injuring several other railroad men. The bodies of Kahl and Christelburg were burned, together with fifteen box-cars.

The increase of assessment of the property of the state is more than ninety-five millions over 1886. This increase of the assessment will yield an increased revenue of $446,942.13, of which the school fund will receive nearly $250,000.

While Stephen Littleton and John J. Cahill were asleep in a livery stable at Trenton, N. J., they were assaulted by Rice Blakely, a disreputable character. Littleton had his head split open by a hatchet and Cahill received a serious wound from a pistol.

The Cincinnati newspapers have notified the railroads with which they have dealings that in consideration of the withdrawal of free passes all time-tables and railroad notices will be charged for as other business advertisements, and tickets at regular rates will be accepted in payment.

Glass-eyed Charley Henderson, the fellow who laid in the Danville jail so long, and finally got off with a hung jury, failed to appear at Shelbyville when his case there under a similar charge was called, and his money bail of $1,500 was declared forfeited. It is said that he has skipped.

Judge Cooley was elected chairman of the Inter-State Commerce Commission.

The Louisville & Nashville Railroad Company will soon have strung upon their lines 34 blast furnaces. There are 21 furnaces being built, and 13 have recently been completed.

The business failures in the United States for the three months ending March 31 were 3,007, against 3,203 in the same quarter last year. The comparative liabilities were: 1887, $32,161,000; 1886, $29,681,000.

Commissioner of Internal Revenue Miller has ruled that collectors shall not employ or retain more than two members of the same family—each family to be regarded as including all its relations by blood or marriage.

The Buckner men confidently announce that the "Man of War" will be easily nominated on the first ballot, yet every time anybody mentions Harris' name they wriggle and howl as if they were scared to death. There is a discrepancy here.—[Louisville Post.]

DEATHS.

Rev. Nathan Taylor, father of Governor Taylor, of Tennessee, died at his home in State Friday.

Mrs. Mary Kieth Green, the mother of the well-known editor, Thomas M. Green, died at Maysville, aged 90 years.

The noted poet, John G. Saxe, died at Albany, N. Y., last week, aged 70. For ten years he had been an invalid from softening of the brain.

Capt. Thomas G. Moore, of Crab Orchard, a prominent turfman, died Friday at his home, of pneumonia after several weeks illness. He was just a few days over 70 years old and was an Irishman by birth, inheriting that sense of honor so characteristic of the true-blood. He owned many noted flyers in his day and was considered good authority on all turf matters.

For some time Capt. Moore has been engaged in writing a history of the turf, which we suppose will shortly be published. He leaves a young wife and five children, two or three grown. The funeral occurred at Crab Orchard Saturday afternoon.

RELIGIOUS.

Rev. P. G. Elson will preach at Hall's Gap church next Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Twenty-five have been added to the church since Revs. Evans and Hopper began the meeting in Louisville.

The Free-Will Baptists of America report 82,323 members, an increase during the year 4,606; 1,542 churches, and 1,291 ordained ministers.

There will be a Sunday School Convention at Monticello, beginning next Thursday, when our talented young friend, J. C. Saufley, will deliver the welcome address.

Rev. Sidney Strong, a Congregationalist from Nebraska, preached a good sermon at the Presbyterian church Sunday in the absence of Rev. A. S. Moffett, who was called to Georgetown. Rev. L. H. Blanton, of Central University, preached at night.

The man who can chase his hat two or three squares, with his sweetheart looking at him and not "cuss," but on the contrary wear a seven by nine smile of christian resignation, as Brother John Bell Gibson did Sunday, has got more religion than any two of the 12 apostles had.

A letter from Brother Barnes, dated at McComb City, Miss., March 31, reached us too late for this issue. He has recovered from his severe illness and gone back to his work. The letter tells of his wrestle with the demon pain, and of his final yield to partaking of such human remedies as mustard plasters, castor oil and quinine. But you shall wait to read the letter in full in next paper.

HUSTONVILLE, LINCOLN COUNTY.

Mr. Randolph seemed to preach under special inspiration Sunday last.

The most interesting item communicated this week is: The 60 per cent. of the school fund has been received and is ready for claimants.

The big April fool canard, touching an alleged spree of the elephant at the Zoo sold some of our strictly temperance population rather cheaply.

Miss Aris Bishop is getting up a boom in bleaching and pressing hats, dyeing trimmings, &c. Economy favors the enterprize and will encourage it.

Our hospital reports are still encouraging. Mrs. Musum, sister of G. W. Ryan, has returned to her home in Virginia, regarding her brother as convalescent.

The sale at Moreland last week is said to have been rather quiet. Mr. Edwards has rented the farm to the Messrs. Smiley.

Mrs. Moreland retained the dwelling-house.

Prof. W. C. Grinstead, of Danville gave us a short visit Sunday. I have secured the valuable services of himself and Prof. Starkey, of Indians, to conduct our teachers' institute the second week in August.

The citizens of the Pleasant Point region held a meeting last Saturday, consolidating two feeble districts, resolved to build a school-house forthwith and manifest a zeal for reformation which looks very much like the harbinger of success.

It is to be hoped the spirit of improvement in this most important direction will rapidly gain strength, and an energetic effort will be made all along the line to utilize the means we have at hand. Near $10,000 is annually distributed for common schools in our county and it is the part of every patriotic citizen to see that it shall yield the best possible returns. I am aware that it is un-fashionable to talk about anything but politics and speculation, but still the soundest policy, the wisest investment of any nation is to see that its people, its whole people, are faithfully and judiciously enlightened.

GARRARD COUNTY DEPARTMENT.

Lancaster.

Arbor Day was not very generally observed here, only a few trees being planted.

Over 60 reserved seats have been sold for the New Orleans Minstrels, which appear here Wednesday evening.

Miss Leila Price has returned from Texas. Mr. William Burnside and son, Robert, of Wichita Falls, Texas, are visiting relatives in town.

Logan & Brewer's popular salesman, Mr. W. R. Marrs, was unlucky enough to let a heavy iron grating fall on his foot, mashing that member seriously.

Rev. Reagan, of Buena Vista, preached at the Presbyterian church Sunday morning and evening. His subject in the evening was the Origin of the Sabbath; in the evening on the Observance of the Sabbath.

A young man named Arnold, from the lower edge of this county, was drunk and disorderly in town Friday and when Marshal Hamilton went to arrest him, resisted vigorously. He was fined $8 in the police court Saturday morning.

Clayton Ray and Sam Sutton, the two negroes charged with furnishing prisoners means to escape, were tried before Judge Walker Friday and discharged, the evidence against them not being sufficient to warrant the judge in holding them over.

The Indian Troupes gave its last performance at the Hall Friday evening to an audience which occupied every chair in the house and covered all the windows, ladders and boxes to be procured. Standing-room was at a discount before the performance was over. The troupe left for Richmond Monday morning, where they will remain four weeks. The only Indian left in town now are "Big Injun" Rothwell and "Modoc Chief" Eason.

DANVILLE, BOYLE COUNTY.

John Yeiser, Sr., a prominent citizen of Boyle county, died Friday night, aged nearly 89 years.

A. P. Wilson has sold out his stock of groceries to B. F. Reeder, who will carry on the business at the same stand.

A "Degree," which all printers must sooner or later take, was conferred on a young man connected with the Tribune office, Saturday evening. The ceremonies are said to be solemn and impressive.

County Clerks say that when they apply to Auditor Hewitt for compensation allowed for copying assessor's books, that Mr. Auditor Hewitt smiles pleasantly and has very little to say and that if he is inclined to pay them he does not do it.

Prof. William L. Yerkes, of Paris, was in town several days last week, visiting his father, brother and other friends. Mr. Fred Lazarus and family are spending a few days with friends in Louisville. The venerable Judge F. F. Fox is in a very feeble condition of health. Mrs. R. M. Fisher is very ill. Mrs. Theodore Linney, who has been very ill, is now convalescent.

The meeting at the Baptist church, conducted by Rev. F. D. Hale, still continues, with 23 additions up to the present. Announcements have been made for every day and night this week. The meeting at Scudder's Academy, west of town, closed Sunday night. Up to Saturday night there were 43 confessions, 17 of the 43 up to the present connecting themselves with the Baptist church here.

The boys who were before the police court for shooting in the lot adjoining the cemetery, the lot being within the town limits, were not fined $10 for every shot fired, as the ordinance directs, but were dismissed, after being told that they would be required to pay $1 each. The boys have a notion that the whole thing is a joke, as the law is not enforced against them, and after a few days the shooting and banging will in all probability be resumed, to the great danger and annoyance of the people living in that vicinity.

An odd sort of party, who gives the name of White, was found about a week ago by Dr. Brown, of Parksville, lying in a helpless condition in a straw stack near that town. He was, and still is, unable to walk, and either cannot or will not give an account of himself. Dr. Brown gave him something to eat and sent him here, that the county might take charge of him. Judge Lee, of the county court, sent him to the boarding-house of Mrs. S. A. Steinberger, on Walnut street, where he is at present.

When asked his age he says he is 70 years old, although from his appearance he cannot be over 50. He says he has spent the greater part of his life at sea and that he once lived on Bettie's Island, wherever that is. He does not know his first name, or if he does he will not tell it. Harrodsburg is the last place he remembers being at before Dr. Brown found him. He wears a woolen undershirt with the number "13" on the breast. His legs and feet were very much swollen when first brought to Mrs. Steinberger's, but under the good nursing he has received and the medical attention of Dr. J. C. Bogle his physical condition has improved generally.

Mrs. Abigail S. Tilton, of Rockingham county, N. H., is the last pensioner on the list of the Revolutionary war. Her husband served as a soldier in that war, and she is paid $104 annually by the State of New Hampshire and $192 by the United States Government. She is over 100 years old.

Semi-Weekly Interior Journal

Stanford, Ky., April 5, 1887

E. C. WALTON, - Business Manager.

L. & N. LOCAL TIME CARD.

Mail train going North	2 10 P. M.
" South	12 15 P. M.
Express train" South	1 14 A. M.
" North	2 12 A. M.

The above is calculated on standard time. Solar runs about 20 minutes faster.

K. C. LOCAL TIME CARD.

Trains leave Rowland at 5 and 7:15 A. M.

Returning, arrive 6 and 8:55 P. M.

LOCAL NOTICES.

LANDRETH's Garden Seed at Penny & McAlister's.

A FULL line of fishing tackle of all kinds at Penny & McAlister's.

Ask your grocer for the Cincinnati Baking Co.'s crackers and cakes.

WATCHES and Jewelry repaired on short notice and warranted by Penny & McAlister's.

STANDARD ready mixed paints; quality and durability guaranteed at McRoberts & Stagg's.

HUNTERS, ATTENTION.—Loaded Cartidges, all sizes of shot, at Penny & McAlister's.

A COMPLETE stock of jewelry, latest style. Rockford watches a specialty. Penny & McAlister.

PERSONAL.

—GRAN L. MERSHON, of this place, has been granted a pension.

—PRETTY MISS BELLE COOK, of Hustonville, is visiting relatives here.

—MRS. GEORGE O. BARNES and Miss Freeman are visiting in Richmond.

—MISS JENNIE GOGGIN, of Kirksville, is the guest of Miss Foxie Pennington.

—MRS. J. H. HUTCHINGS and Miss Louanna James are visiting in Danville.

—COL. LOUIS J. FRAZEE will be master at Crab Orchard Springs this season.

—MR. D. T. FACKLER, of the Advocate, was the only newspaper man here yesterday.

—MRS. JOSEPH SEVERANCE went down to Lebanon Saturday to see Mr. John Severeance, who is very ill of dropsy.

—REV. AND MRS. F. S. POLLITT have gone to Macon county to remain during the repairs on the Methodist church.

—MR. J. B. ADAMS and his handsome wife, of Louisville, who have been visiting her father, Mr. T. M. Lillard, returned home yesterday.

—CARLEY COX, who has been engaged in Williamsburg for sometime, passed down to Louisville yesterday to take a position with Arthur Peter & Co.

—JUDGE C. E. KINCAID, the liveliest correspondent in the business, is in Louisville bidding his friends good-bye before leaving for Europe to spend the summer.

—MR. JAMES T. CRAIG returned Sunday from California, whither he took his sister, Mrs. R. W. Lillard, who is improving in that delightful climate. Jim took on many pounds of flesh during his trip.

LOCAL MATTERS.

CHEAP Fruits at A. C. Alford's.

Don't fail to call and see my new spring stock. S. H. Shanks.

GARDEN SEEDS of every description at A. A. Warren's Model Grocery.

ELISHA KIDD has been appointed postmaster at Kidd's Store, Casey county.

BARRETT'S CIRCUS will do all the towns along the K. C. beginning about April 15.

THE report that the Portman House was about to change hands, is, we are told by Squire Portman without the least foundation.

THE public school taught by Mr. W. F. McClary closed Friday, but he will begin a private school of ten weeks' session to day at the same place.

THE Court of Appeals has affirmed the sentence of six year's imprisonment against Oyster Bill Alford, formerly of this county, for killing a man in Louisville.

THE New Orleans Minstrels are old favorites here, and having been enlarged and improved since their last visit, they will no doubt draw a large crowd to night. If you want to be sure of a good seat secure one at McRoberts & Stagg's before the performance.

ATTENTION VETERANS.—On Saturday, the 9th of April at 2 P. M., sharp, at Old Fellow's Hall in Stanford, Hon. T. Z. Morrow, Department Commander, will deliver an address, in which he will explain the principles of the Grand Army of the Republic. All ex Union soldiers are invited to attend. Immediately thereafter a Grand Army Post will be organized. Any Union soldiers wishing to join the same will have an opportunity of doing so. Smith Irwin, M. F. Hulet, G. H. McKinney, committee.

MAimed for LIFE.—George Barnes, better known as "Poke," who has been miller for Faris for some time, got drunk at Rawland Sunday and finding a soft place on the railroad track near there, laid himself down to slumber. At midnight, when the engine came up after Dispatcher Spink to go on duty, it passed over his hand and wrist, mangling them terribly. He was also badly cut about the head and face. Dr. Reid was called, and finding amputation necessary, cut off the arm above the injured part, with the assistance of Dr. Peyton. "Poke" is a hard working man, but rarely fails to drink too much when he gets hold of money and at least it has been his undoing. I never fail in the long run to get the best of all who look continually upon it.

NEW lot of Spring goods just received call and examine. S. H. Shanks.

WANTED.—Matron for Stanford Female College, next session. Must have experience and bring in patronage. Alex S. Paxton at T. R. Walton's.

MESSENGER BEAZLEY will have a grand opening of her spring millinery on Thursday, Friday and Saturday and invites the ladies to come and inspect.

THERE was a shooting scrape between the Nances and the Hawes the other night but we could not get the heads or tails of the matter. The grand jury will investigate tomorrow.

THE Philadelphia Clothing Agency of John H. Craig & Co. offers to the trade 484 fabrics for men's suits and trowsers from John Wanamaker and Jacob Reed's Sons, either in piece or made into suits in Philadelphia. Each garment guaranteed to fit perfectly or no sale.

RETURNED.—Mr. B. F. Engleman returned Sunday from Texas with Squire George P. Bright, who went off mysterious ten days ago. He is suffering from blood clot on the brain and does not seem to know why he went off. He recollects leaving Danville, but the rest is a blank.

IN the County Court yesterday Judge Varnon and County Clerk Cooper dined through a tiresome day, doing next to nothing. Mrs. Kittie Collier qualified as executrix of her husband, J. D. Collier, and the assessors' books, which placed Col. T. P. Hill's farm at a value of $1,300 were charged to read $13,000.

THE old reliable firm, Bruce & McRoberts, which makes a specialty of clothing, boots and shoes and hats, are in the swim this season with the best and fullest stock of goods they have ever carried, to which they call attention on our first page. You cannot go wrong if you trade with them; for they are sure to treat you well and give you the worth of your money.

CIRCUIT COURT.—The jury in the case of L. B. Carter for the murder of Tom Moore, at Mt. Vernon, reported at 11 o'clock Friday that they could not agree and were discharged. It is understood that they stood seven for acquittal and five for a short term for manslaughter. It will be remembered that Carter was acquitted at the last court for man-slaughter. It appeared and made a very neat little speech of thanks and pledged himself to bear the banner of his party till the close of the polls at the August election, when he was sure of coming out winner. The convention then adjourned.

LAND, STOCK AND CROP

—Ad Catron bought of John Horton a fine brown gelding for $500.

—Sam M. Owens bought of J. W. Powell a pair of 3-year-old mules for $300.

—Harry Wilkes lowered his record of 2:14 1/2 to 2:13 1/2 at San Francisco Saturday.

—E. C. Montgomery sold to John Trapp, of Dayton, Ky., a pair of 16 hand mules for $270.

Judge Mano bought ten broke mules from Hutsell & Turner last week for $1,450.—[Carlisle Mercury.]

Yesterday the civil suit against Moore's administrator by Dr. Dooree resulted in a verdict for the full amount claimed by the doctor. Green Cates was then put on trial for shooting Walker Green in 1884, and he was given one year in the penitentiary. This is the first conviction of importance this court.

ANENT THE COWHIDING THREATS.—In regard to the proceedings against Mr. S. S. Myers for threatening to cowhide our esteemed friend, the gallant Col. W. O. Bradley, a slip of the pen made us say that he was taken before Judge Morrow. The following sentence, however, which says that Judge Varnon held him in $200 bond to keep the peace, shows so plainly that it was an unintentional error that it is only for the wayfaring man, who is supposed to be a fool, that it is worth while to correct the statement. Judge Morrow understands that it was a mistake and is ought to be thoroughly satisfied that we would not intentionally misrepresent him or anybody else. And while we are at it perhaps it might be just as well to disabuse our esteemed friend, the gallant colonel's, mind from the reported belief that we were the instigator, aider or abettor of the proceedings which came so near resulting in an effort to cowhide him. True we had said in this paper that when a lawyer attacks a man's character, without sufficient grounds, and the Court does not protect him, he should proceed to protect himself in any manner that comes handy, but we did not know a word of the demand for a retraction until late in the morning of last Thursday, nor that Mr. Myers had procured a black whip to use upon his willifer. We disown any but kind feelings for the colonel and our efforts in season and out of season to secure for him the empty bauble of republican nomination for governor ought to prove to him that we are sincere in our admiration and estimate of him. But individuals, also like republicans, are sometimes ungrateful, and the gallant colonel is a sad example of it. We also find that what gave the colonel so great a season of unrest, namely his belief that certain citizens had banded themselves together to make Mr. Myers do the beating and if he resisted to assassinate him, is absolutely without foundation in fact. There was a good deal of indignation expressed, both in regard to Col. Bradley and the county attorney's warrant, but we believe we know our citizens too well to think that they would encourage or tolerate bloodshed in the manner charged.

BRAZILIAN, Southern Queen, Bermuda Red Yam and Jersey Red Seed Sweet Potatoes at T. R. Walton's.

A LITTLE over five miles of the Stanford, Dix River, White Oak & Garrard County Turnpike has been set to Dad Connelley at $1,550.

M. H. F. BALDWIN, Supervisor on the Knoxville division of the L. & N., has been appointed Road-master on the Pensacola & Atlantic Railroad and leaves at once for his new field of labor in the South.

BIG SALES.—It will surprise his friends to learn that W. H. Higgins has sold his grocery store and good will to Dr. S. G. Hooper and will invoice about the 1st of May. Dr. Hooper has also bought the residence of S. P. Stagg, on Lancaster street, paying therefor $3,350. The Doctor will remove with his family here and will be welcomed by our citizens.

THE democrat met in convention yesterday at the Court-House and were called to order by Judge Varnon, acting for the chairman of the county committee, J. E. Lynn, who explained that the object of the meeting was to nominate a candidate for the legislature. Masterson Peyton nominated Mr. A. K. Denny for chairman and he was unanimously chosen. W. P. Walton was then made secretary, and nominations being in order, Mr. W. F. McClary came forward and said that he had determined not to allow his name to come before the convention, but instead would present that of Dr. J. D. Pettus, to whom he paid some high compliments. Mr. J. M. Carter seconded the nomination and before the final vote was taken Judge W. O. Hansford told the people in a highly eulogistic speech of the high character of Dr. Pettus as a man and a democrat and he was followed by Judge Varnon insisting that if any democrat had any other man be preferred to Dr. Pettus to say so now, or else give the doctor the warm endorsement he deserved. The chairman then asked all who were in favor of the doctor being made the nominee to stand up, when a good number arose and no one standing when the reverse of the question was put, he declared the nomination unanimous. A committee consisting of Judge Varnon and R. C. Warren was sent to notify the doctor of his nomination. He appeared and made a very neat little speech of thanks and pledged himself to bear the banner of his party till the close of the polls at the August election, when he was sure of coming out winner. The convention then adjourned.

Having sold my farm, I will sell to the highest bidder on chief, a stylish red bay, and one of the finest bred horses in the country; J. E. & J. R. Farris' Silver King, a splendid mahogany bay of excellent form and a natural saddle, was also shown; C. T. Sandidge's Second Jewel, the horse that walks off with all the blue ribbons at the fairs and elsewhere was there in all his beauty, Joe Abdallah owned by J. K. Brughman, and stood by Smith Baughman, was looking in fine trim, as was Steele Carpenter's Wallace Denmark, a most finely fancy stallion of perfect form and action; Belgium, L. D. Garner's Norman, a massive and well formed animal, and G. C. Given's Kenney Wilkes, a beautiful young horse, had many admirers. Eubanks and Wilmot showed Abdallah Messenger; W. J. Lytle, Tip Bruce; William Hubble & Son Etch Arden; R. Gentry & Son their splendid Gambetta and Engleman & Farris, the fast trotter, Bluemont. Then there was Capt. T. A. Elkin's Arthur Sims, a beauty and a thoroughbred, and S. H. Baughman's handsome Congregate and Cleveland.

After using the Smoke Ball two months writes as follows:

A PHYSICIAN.

YELLVILLE, ARK., Jan. 12, 1887.

CARBOLIC SMOKE BALL COMPANY: I have tested your medicine and can truthfully say this: I have practiced medicine for thirty years, and your Carbolic Smoke Ball relieves Cataract, Asthma, Neuralgia, Croup and Bronchitis more readily than any preparation; and I will say further, that no physician will or can prepare a remedy that will give relief as soon as the Carbolic Smoke Ball for the diseases named in your circular.

W. M. NOE, M. D.

LOUISVILLE, Feb. 1.

CARBOLIC SMOKE BALL COMPANY—Gentlemen: I have been a sufferer from Cataract for eight years; the symptoms were a fulness about the head, frequently followed with Neuralgic pains. Have tried numerous remedies without receiving any benefit. A friend induced me to try the Smoke Ball. The treatment has been attended by most satisfactory results. I believe the Smoke Ball the only Cataract cure, and cheerfully recommend it to all sufferers from Cataract. I am satisfied if used properly it will effect a permanent cure.

Respectfully,

E. M. HOOD,

With Stratton & Terstege.

The Attorney-General of Tennessee says:

a great deal of money for the smoke ball, and spending money to buy it. I have used the Carbolic Smoke Ball the best I have ever used. It is the only remedy I ever saw that I believe will cure Cataract, and I warmly recommend it to every sufferer.

LILLARD THOMPSON, Lebanon, Tenn.

The complete treatment includes a Debilator package, which should be used in all chronic cases as a Constitutional Treatment, is then necessary. One Smoke Ball contains between 300 and 400 doses.

Price $2, Debilator $1.

PENNY & MCALISTER, Agents, Stanford, Ky.

E. W. JONES, Agent, Crab Orchard, Ky.

L. G. GOOCH & SON, Agents, Waynesburg, Ky.

No. 9 leaves Chattanooga at 3:00 P. M., arriving at Chattanooga at 9:15. No. 8 leaves Chattanooga daily except Sunday, at 4:15 A. M., arriving at Chattanooga at 9:15. No. 8 leaves Chattanooga at 3:00 P. M., arriving at Oskaloosa at 6:45 P. M.

Man Boudoir Buffet Sleeping Cars on all through trains.

JOHN C. GAULT, Gen'l Manager,

R. CARROLL, Gen'l Sup't.

W. W. WELLS, Superintendent, Somerset, Ky.

General Offices, St. Paul Building, West Fourth Street, Cincinnati, Ohio.

No. 9 leaves Oskaloosa daily except Sunday, at 2:15 A. M., arriving at Chattanooga at 9:15. No. 8 leaves Chattanooga at 3:00 P. M., arriving at Oskaloosa at 6:45 P. M.

10:42 a. m. 10:42 a. m.

1:30 p. m. 1:30 p. m.

4:30 p. m. 4:30 p. m.

7:27 a. m. 7:27 a. m.

4:05 p. m. 4:05 p. m.

1:35 p. m. 1:35 p. m.

3:53 p. m. 3:53 p. m.

13:59 a. m. 13:59 a. m.

18:28 p. m. 18:28 p. m.

12:28 p. m. 12:28 p. m.

2:12 p. m. 2:12 p. m.

12:12 p. m. 12:12 p. m.

</

Semi-Weekly Interior Journal

MT. SALEM, KY.

—Jack Walls has gone to Parksville, where he will remain for some time.

—W. T. Reid is making preparations to go to market to lay in a full supply of spring goods. He who is a soulful, enterprising, jovial trader and farmer, Emmett McCormick, in addition to his other branches of business, will soon be prepared to fill all orders for fish to the trade in Central Kentucky.

—The idea of Gen. Frank Wolford becoming an editor is truly exhilarating to those intimately acquainted with his peculiar qualifications for that avocation, and the office of the clerk of the Court of Appeals. It is to be hoped that the composition or who attempts to decipher his manuscript will not use "cuss words."

—We believe the people in some sections are too hard on Emmett McCormick for even insinuating doubt in regard to his extraordinary tales about hooking an enormous number of suckers on Carpenter's creek lately; 140 pounds is not an unreasonable weight for such a expert as E. C. Wolford to hook in one day.

—There have been some sickness and deaths in this section lately. An infant aged about 9 months, of Nelson Wicher died of brain fever on the 25th. Mrs. Elvira Marcus died suddenly a few days since. Mr. William Sandifer is down with pneumonia. C. T. Elliott, of Carpenter's creek, is now in the lowest stage of convulsion.

—Miss Florence Richards is slowly recovering from the severe injuries received by a fall while stamping to mount a frisky horse not long since. Also Mrs. Elizabeth Smith's broken arm is doing very well. It will be remembered she was thrown from a spring wagon near Turgeville not long since, her horse getting unmanageable, she having met with a very narrow escape with life.

—Died, on the 16th, of malarial fever and other complications, at Jamesport, Missouri, Mrs. Rachael Wilson Walls, wife of John Walls, aged 61 years. Mrs. Walls was called from this section about two months ago to attend a sick daughter, Mrs. Glancy Jones, in that state. She was taken with the disease, but no serious apprehensions were felt till the day before she died. Her husband was summoned, but she passed away before he arrived. Mrs. Walls belonged to an old and highly respected family of people. Though her sphere was among the unobtrusive, yet in every relation of life, whether as a mother, friend or neighbor, she was a true woman in every respect. Her unexpected death is not only lamented by a large circle of relatives, but there is not a person among her neighbors who feels there is a sad void since she crossed the silent river.

A Bazaar Commotion.

An orderly sat on a cracker box, with his handkerchief to his eyes: "Why do you weep, my briny friend?" said the cracker in mild surprise. And he wailed a wild and woeful wail, and rocked himself to and fro: "The ladies are having a grand bazaar, they'll be after me, I know." A chicken heard the terrible news, as he slept in his celery bed, with his toes turned up to the man in the moon, and a parasol over his head. "Wife, hand me my water proof double quick! I haven't a minute to lose; they will have my beautiful head chopped off before I can put on my shoes." And a cucumber picked up his scolded ears, and out of the garden fled, and the green pepper climbed a telephone pole, and the cabbage stood on his head. The onion cried till he couldn't speak, and the mustard gave a yell. The gory tomato split his skin and tumbled into the well. A teapot sat on a coffee mill and fanned with a Japanese fan, while a gallon of cream turned black with fright and was drowned in a kerosene can. [N. Y. Mercury.]

The latest fad is the game of "Bean Bags," which is now prevailing alarmingly. It is an importation from Long Branch and Saratoga, where it had a successful run, striking the place of "progressive euchre," "blind man's buff," etc. A polished board, four feet by two, is set at an angle of twenty degrees. A hole four inches in diameter is cut in the upper end. Seven bags of different sizes, filled with beans, are prepared. The player stands 30 feet from the board and undertakes to throw the bags through the hole. For each bag that goes through the hole the player makes ten points, for each bag that lodges on the board he makes five points. One of the bags is much larger than the others and is called "Jumbo." It counts twice as much as the others. The game is having a big run in upper-tendom, and is said to be very amusing and entertaining. Prizes are offered and some degree of skill is necessary in order to become an expert — [Louisville Post].

Kreukinsko Murphy recently passed his examination and is now a member of the bar. His strong card is in getting the truth out of witnesses. The following is a sample of his system of examination: "Are you a married man?" "No, sir; I am a bachelor." "Will you please tell the court how long you have been a bachelor, and what were the circumstances that induced you to become one?"

Brunkeness, or Liquor Habit, can be cured by administering Dr. Haines' Golden Specific.

It can be given in a cup of coffee or tea without the knowledge of the person taking it, effecting a speedy and permanent cure, whether the patient is a moderate drinker or an alcoholique wrecker. Thousands of drunkards have been made temperate men who have taken the Golden Specific in their coffee without their knowledge, and to-day believe they quit drinking of their own free will. No harmful effect results from its administration. Cures guaranteed. Send for circular and full particulars. Address in confidence GOLDEN SPECIFIC CO., 250 Main Street, Louisville, Ky.

#7 VERNON, ROCKCASTLE COUNTY.

—Another girl at Tom Hay's.
—I have 45 stock hogs for sale. L. B. Adams.

—Logan Hasty, of Level Green, has a 11 pound girl.

—Ed. Hiatt preached at the Christian church Sunday.

—Miss Rena Crawford, a daughter of James Crawford, is lying very low with pneumonia.

—Three members of the potato club have been suspended on account of their fondness for telling unseasonable yarns.

—Another one of Langham's liquor cases against Joplin was tried before Judge Smith Saturday and defendant acquitted.

—Many aged "edibles" that grow in barns were passed off on the boys, and some grown people here, as is usually done at most places on the first ult.

—J. W. Brown has bought the Weber property, now occupied by J. W. Neibert. Mr. Weber takes in the trade the house owned by Mr. Brown, diagonally opposite the Court-house.

—James T. Adams, of Garrard, is here for a few days. Jeems Dick Chandler, spiritualist and a commercial traveler, was an exciting (to) our merchants Saturday. Large bottles only 50 cents a bottle at Penny & McAlister.

—Great excitement has been caused in the vicinity of Paris, Texas, by the remarkable recovery of Mr. J. E. Corley, who was so helpless he could not turn in bed, or raise his head; everybody said he was dying of Consumption. A trial bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery was sent him. Finding he, he bought a large bottle and a box of Dr. King's New Life Pills, and by the time he had taken two boxes of Pills and two boxes of the Discovery he was well and had gained in flesh thirty-six pounds. Trial bottles of this Great Discovery for Consumption cost at Penny & McAlister.

—Use Green Cough Balsam for coughs and colds. Price 50c. For sale by McRoberts & Stagg.

—How is your blood? Use Green's Sarsaparilla For sale by McRoberts & Stagg at $1.

—Green's Electric Oil cures all aches and pains. For sale by McRoberts & Stagg at 50c.

—When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

—When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.

—The ladies of the Mite Society will give a supper at the Christian church next Thursday night, 7th inst., the proceeds to be applied towards paying for the organ now being used in the Sunday School. A good attendance is looked for.

—"Fishes" left here Friday for Pineville. Before leaving he spoke to our former shorthand student, John Welch, now a stenographer of Louisville, for his services to take down the evidence in an important trial that comes up shortly in court at Pineville.

—Squire Whitehead, an old citizen of this county has, and a worker too, aged 70, was in town Monday after farming implements and seeds. He says he has never been obliged to buy corn but once and that was during the war, when the army foraged on him.

—The school board of examiners were in attendance at the closing of Mr. J. W. Brown's school at Level Green Friday last. There were 19 applicants for teachers' certificates examined and certificates of different grades granted to them. This is a remarkable showing for a single school and speaks well of the ability of Mr. Brown as a first class teacher.

—To the Democracy of Rockcastle County: — You are hereby requested to meet in mass convention at the Court-house in Mt. Vernon on Saturday, the 23rd day of April, 1887, at 1 o'clock P. M., for the purpose of selecting delegates to attend the State Convention to be held in Louisville on the 4th day of May, 1887, to nominate a candidate for Governor to be voted for and elected, at the August election, 1887. D. N. Williams, Chairman Democratic County Committee.

—The examining trial of Willette Vowels, the 10-year-old boy, who killed Willie Livesey, aged 14, by stabbing, last Monday night, took place Friday before County Judge Colyer, and resulted in an acquittal. We did not hear the evidence, but are told went to show that the dirk, with which the fatal work was done, had been the property of different boys about town and they had been in the habit of fooling carelessly with it, striking at each other with the blade open and pressing a spring in the handle, allowing the blade to slip back in its place without doing any harm, to the parry struck. It seems that young Vowels was only meaning to scare Livesey in the same way, but failed to press the spring in time to prevent the sad result.

County Attorney B. K. Bethurem appeared for the prosecution and Judge M. H. Owsley and G. W. McClure for the defense.

—Southern democrats rejoice over the fact that there remains hardly a republican in a Federal office in all that section. Southern democrats are very nearly solid for Cleveland.

—Jack Taylor and J. D. Dougherty, cousins, quarreled over a woman at Miller's camp, on the Corbin extension of the L & N. In the fight Taylor shot Dougherty, who in turn drew his pistol and shot Taylor through the abdomen, killing him on the spot. Dougherty was taken to Barbourville for preliminary trial and held over by the court, bail being refused. He has served a term in the penitentiary. It is said that this makes the 9th murder at or near Corbin in this month.

—Richmond has a democratic postmaster, Joe B. Willis, after a lapse of 26 years Mr. John Taylor, the retiring officer, has never missed a day from the office during his term of 21 years, 3 months and 26 days. The amount of money he has paid to the Government reaches far above what the outside world would think. Last year's money so paid amounted to $30,000, and for Mr. Taylor's entire term averaged about $20,000 a year, or made a total of $425,000. Mr. Taylor never lost a registered letter, never had any trouble with the department, never stole anything, never had a fight with anybody, and never got drunk. In the beginning the number of letters daily handled did not exceed 200, but has gradually grown to 2,000 a day, or a grand total of about ten million letters that Mr. Taylor has handled during his term. His salary has ranged from $770 to $2,200 — [Register.

—Southern democrats rejoice over the fact that there remains hardly a republican in a Federal office in all that section. Southern democrats are very nearly solid for Cleveland.

—Jack Taylor and J. D. Dougherty, cousins, quarreled over a woman at Miller's camp, on the Corbin extension of the L & N. In the fight Taylor shot Dougherty, who in turn drew his pistol and shot Taylor through the abdomen, killing him on the spot. Dougherty was taken to Barbourville for preliminary trial and held over by the court, bail being refused. He has served a term in the penitentiary. It is said that this makes the 9th murder at or near Corbin in this month.

—Richmond has a democratic postmaster, Joe B. Willis, after a lapse of 26 years Mr. John Taylor, the retiring officer, has never missed a day from the office during his term of 21 years, 3 months and 26 days. The amount of money he has paid to the Government reaches far above what the outside world would think. Last year's money so paid amounted to $30,000, and for Mr. Taylor's entire term averaged about $20,000 a year, or made a total of $425,000. Mr. Taylor never lost a registered letter, never had any trouble with the department, never stole anything, never had a fight with anybody, and never got drunk. In the beginning the number of letters daily handled did not exceed 200, but has gradually grown to 2,000 a day, or a grand total of about ten million letters that Mr. Taylor has handled during his term. His salary has ranged from $770 to $2,200 — [Register.

—Southern democrats rejoice over the fact that there remains hardly a republican in a Federal office in all that section. Southern democrats are very nearly solid for Cleveland.

—Jack Taylor and J. D. Dougherty, cousins, quarreled over a woman at Miller's camp, on the Corbin extension of the L & N. In the fight Taylor shot Dougherty, who in turn drew his pistol and shot Taylor through the abdomen, killing him on the spot. Dougherty was taken to Barbourville for preliminary trial and held over by the court, bail being refused. He has served a term in the penitentiary. It is said that this makes the 9th murder at or near Corbin in this month.

—Richmond has a democratic postmaster, Joe B. Willis, after a lapse of 26 years Mr. John Taylor, the retiring officer, has never missed a day from the office during his term of 21 years, 3 months and 26 days. The amount of money he has paid to the Government reaches far above what the outside world would think. Last year's money so paid amounted to $30,000, and for Mr. Taylor's entire term averaged about $20,000 a year, or made a total of $425,000. Mr. Taylor never lost a registered letter, never had any trouble with the department, never stole anything, never had a fight with anybody, and never got drunk. In the beginning the number of letters daily handled did not exceed 200, but has gradually grown to 2,000 a day, or a grand total of about ten million letters that Mr. Taylor has handled during his term. His salary has ranged from $770 to $2,200 — [Register.

—Southern democrats rejoice over the fact that there remains hardly a republican in a Federal office in all that section. Southern democrats are very nearly solid for Cleveland.

—Jack Taylor and J. D. Dougherty, cousins, quarreled over a woman at Miller's camp, on the Corbin extension of the L & N. In the fight Taylor shot Dougherty, who in turn drew his pistol and shot Taylor through the abdomen, killing him on the spot. Dougherty was taken to Barbourville for preliminary trial and held over by the court, bail being refused. He has served a term in the penitentiary. It is said that this makes the 9th murder at or near Corbin in this month.

—Richmond has a democratic postmaster, Joe B. Willis, after a lapse of 26 years Mr. John Taylor, the retiring officer, has never missed a day from the office during his term of 21 years, 3 months and 26 days. The amount of money he has paid to the Government reaches far above what the outside world would think. Last year's money so paid amounted to $30,000, and for Mr. Taylor's entire term averaged about $20,000 a year, or made a total of $425,000. Mr. Taylor never lost a registered letter, never had any trouble with the department, never stole anything, never had a fight with anybody, and never got drunk. In the beginning the number of letters daily handled did not exceed 200, but has gradually grown to 2,000 a day, or a grand total of about ten million letters that Mr. Taylor has handled during his term. His salary has ranged from $770 to $2,200 — [Register.

—Southern democrats rejoice over the fact that there remains hardly a republican in a Federal office in all that section. Southern democrats are very nearly solid for Cleveland.

—Jack Taylor and J. D. Dougherty, cousins, quarreled over a woman at Miller's camp, on the Corbin extension of the L & N. In the fight Taylor shot Dougherty, who in turn drew his pistol and shot Taylor through the abdomen, killing him on the spot. Dougherty was taken to Barbourville for preliminary trial and held over by the court, bail being refused. He has served a term in the penitentiary. It is said that this makes the 9th murder at or near Corbin in this month.

—Richmond has a democratic postmaster, Joe B. Willis, after a lapse of 26 years Mr. John Taylor, the retiring officer, has never missed a day from the office during his term of 21 years, 3 months and 26 days. The amount of money he has paid to the Government reaches far above what the outside world would think. Last year's money so paid amounted to $30,000, and for Mr. Taylor's entire term averaged about $20,000 a year, or made a total of $425,000. Mr. Taylor never lost a registered letter, never had any trouble with the department, never stole anything, never had a fight with anybody, and never got drunk. In the beginning the number of letters daily handled did not exceed 200, but has gradually grown to 2,000 a day, or a grand total of about ten million letters that Mr. Taylor has handled during his term. His salary has ranged from $770 to $2,200 — [Register.

—Southern democrats rejoice over the fact that there remains hardly a republican in a Federal office in all that section. Southern democrats are very nearly solid for Cleveland.

—Jack Taylor and J. D. Dougherty, cousins, quarreled over a woman at Miller's camp, on the Corbin extension of the L & N. In the fight Taylor shot Dougherty, who in turn drew his pistol and shot Taylor through the abdomen, killing him on the spot. Dougherty was taken to Barbourville for preliminary trial and held over by the court, bail being refused. He has served a term in the penitentiary. It is said that this makes the 9th murder at or near Corbin in this month.

—Richmond has a democratic postmaster, Joe B. Willis, after a lapse of 26 years Mr. John Taylor, the retiring officer, has never missed a day from the office during his term of 21 years, 3 months and 26 days. The amount of money he has paid to the Government reaches far above what the outside world would think. Last year's money so paid amounted to $30,000, and for Mr. Taylor's entire term averaged about $20,000 a year, or made a total of $425,000. Mr. Taylor never lost a registered letter, never had any trouble with the department, never stole anything, never had a fight with anybody, and never got drunk. In the beginning the number of letters daily handled did not exceed 200, but has gradually grown to 2,000 a day, or a grand total of about ten million letters that Mr. Taylor has handled during his term. His salary has ranged from $770 to $2,200 — [Register.

—Southern democrats rejoice over the fact that there remains hardly a republican in a Federal office in all that section. Southern democrats are very nearly solid for Cleveland.

—Jack Taylor and J. D. Dougherty, cousins, quarreled over a woman at Miller's camp, on the Corbin extension of the L & N. In the fight Taylor shot Dougherty, who in turn drew his pistol and shot Taylor through the abdomen, killing him on the spot. Dougherty was taken to Barbourville for preliminary trial and held over by the court, bail being refused. He has served a term in the penitentiary. It is said that this makes the 9th murder at or near Corbin in this month.

—Richmond has a democratic postmaster, Joe B. Willis, after a lapse of 26 years Mr. John Taylor, the retiring officer, has never missed a day from the office during his term of 21 years, 3 months and 26 days. The amount of money he has paid to the Government reaches far above what the outside world would think. Last year's money so paid amounted to $30,000, and for Mr. Taylor's entire term averaged about $20,000 a year, or made a total of $425,000. Mr. Taylor never lost a registered letter, never had any trouble with the department, never stole anything, never had a fight with anybody, and never got drunk. In the beginning the number of letters daily handled did not exceed 200, but has gradually grown to 2,000 a day, or a grand total of about ten million letters that Mr. Taylor has handled during his term. His salary has ranged from $770 to $2,200 — [Register.

—Southern democrats rejoice over the fact that there remains hardly a republican in a Federal office in all that section. Southern democrats are very nearly solid for Cleveland.

—Jack Taylor and J. D. Dougherty, cousins, quarreled over a woman at Miller's camp, on the Corbin extension of the L & N. In the fight Taylor shot Dougherty, who in turn drew his pistol and shot Taylor through the abdomen, killing him on the spot. Dougherty was taken to Barbourville for preliminary trial and held over by the court, bail being refused. He has served a term in the penitentiary. It is said that this makes the 9th murder at or near Corbin in this month.

—Richmond has a democratic postmaster, Joe B. Willis, after a lapse of 26 years Mr. John Taylor, the retiring officer, has never missed a day from the office during his term of 21 years, 3 months and 26 days. The amount of money he has paid to the Government reaches far above what the outside world would think. Last year's money so paid amounted to $30,000, and for Mr. Taylor's entire term averaged about $20,000 a year, or made a total of $425,000. Mr. Taylor never lost a registered letter, never had any trouble with the department, never stole anything, never had a fight with anybody, and never got drunk. In the beginning the number of letters daily handled did not exceed 200, but has gradually grown to 2,000 a day, or a grand total of about ten million letters that Mr. Taylor has handled during his term. His salary has ranged from $770 to $2,200 — [Register.

—Southern democrats rejoice over the fact that there remains hardly a republican in a Federal office in all that section. Southern democrats are very nearly solid for Cleveland.

—Jack Taylor and J. D. Dougherty, cousins, quarreled over a woman at Miller's camp, on the Corbin extension of the L & N. In the fight Taylor shot Dougherty, who in turn drew his pistol and shot Taylor through the abdomen, killing him on the spot. Dougherty was taken to Barbourville for preliminary trial and held over by the court, bail being refused. He has served a term in the penitentiary. It is said that this makes the 9th murder at or near Corbin in this month.

—Richmond has a democratic postmaster, Joe B. Willis, after a lapse of 26 years Mr. John Taylor, the retiring officer, has never missed